The City of Camrose – Twitter Terms of Use and Disclaimer

The City of Camrose uses social media to enhance the ability of citizens to connect with City programs and services.

The City of Camrose uses Twitter to provide information and links about City news and events. We encourage citizens of Camrose and others to follow us on Twitter and other City social media sites after reviewing the Terms of Use.

Terms of Use -

1. The @cityofcamrose account is managed by employees of the City of Camrose and is monitored from Monday to Friday between the hours of 8:00am and 4:30pm.
2. The @cityofcamrose appreciates all follows however will only return the follows of organizations and will not follow individuals.
3. The @cityofcamrose account does not retweet the tweets of other users.

Disclaimer –

While the City of Camrose endeavours to maintain the currency and accuracy of information published on its social media sites, the information is subject to change. It is advisable that users ascertain the currency of information immediately prior to use. The City of Camrose disclaims all responsibility for any loss or damage which may arise from the use of social media. Links to external websites and Facebook or Twitter user accounts are provided as a convenience to users and such sites and associated content are not under the control of the City of Camrose. The inclusion of any link does not imply endorsement of that website, service or person by the City of Camrose. The City of Camrose is not responsible for the content or reliability of links, or for any loss or inconvenience arising from their use.